Feedback Based on CASE Rubric

Claim:

The paragraph makes a clear claim: "Manchester United are the best team in the world." This is a straightforward and definitive statement.

Argument:

The paragraph lacks an argument. There is no explanation or reasoning provided to support the claim. Why Manchester United is considered the best team is not addressed, leaving the reader without context or justification.

Supporting Evidence:

There is no supporting evidence provided to substantiate the claim. Evidence such as achievements, statistics, or comparisons with other teams is absent, making the claim unsupported.

Strengths:

- The claim is direct and unambiguous.

Areas for Improvement:

1. Develop an Argument: Explain why Manchester United is considered the best team. For example, discuss their historical achievements, style of play, or influence in football.
2. Provide Supporting Evidence: Use specific examples such as their number of league titles, Champions League victories, or notable players to back up the claim.
3. Enhance Depth: Add analysis that compares Manchester United to other teams to strengthen the argument.

Level Grading:

Level: 1 This paragraph contains a claim but lacks both argument and supporting evidence. It needs significant development to meet the CASE criteria.
